

Hummingbird Mint

Agastache cana

Characteristics: Perennial member of the mint family featuring spikes of pink to magenta colored flowers. Height to 3 feet. Blooms in summer. This is a very well behaved species in the garden, does not spread via runners like some other species do. Full sun. Drought tolerant.

Native Range: Southwestern United States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, rock garden, butterfly garden, attracts hummingbirds.