

Nodding Onion

Allium cernuum

Characteristics: Native perennial onion features pink flowers in nodding umbrella shaped clusters, called umbels. Leaves are grass-like. Height to 1.5 feet. . Native peoples utilized the bulbs as a food source. Full sun, low to moderate moisture.

Native Range: United States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, deer resistant