

Yellow Columbine

Aquilegia flavescens

Characteristics: Large flowers, petals with nectar filled spurs. All parts of plants are poisonous. Columbines will grow in full sun to part shade or dappled sunlight with moderate moisture. Full sun to part shade. Moderate moisture.

Native Range: Northern Rocky Mountain States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, Accent Plant, Butterfly garden. Deer Resistant