

Western Columbine

Aquilegia formosa

Characteristics: Large red and yellow flowers, petals with nectar filled spurs. All parts of plants are poisonous. Columbines will grow in full sun to part shade or dappled sunlight with moderate moisture. Full sun to part shade. Moderate moisture.

Native Range: Western US and Canada

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, Accent Plant, Butterfly garden. Hummingbird garden, Deer Resistant