

Wild Ginger

Asarum caudatum

Characteristics: Lush slow growing groundcover. Heart shaped shiny green leaves. Flowers are typically hidden beneath the leaves but are very unusual, and maroon in color. Grows in part shade to full shade in moist to moderately moist soil with plenty of compost.

Native Range: Western United States

Landscape Uses: Woodland garden, Shade Garden.