

Tufted Hairgrass

Deschampsia caespitosa

Characteristics: Densely tufted perennial bunch grass. A cool season grass which is often grown as an ornamental. Typically forms a low dense tussock (to 16 inches) of very thin arching dark green grass blades. Numerous flower stems rise to 3 feet bearing airy panicles.

Native Range: Northern Hemisphere

Landscape Uses: An excellent ornamental grass for partly shaded areas.