

Cream Buckwheat

Eriogonum umbellatum var majus

Characteristics: Mat forming perennial. This is a large species which features several varieties. Variety majus features white flowers. Flower stems may reach 12 to 18 inches. Full sun, drought tolerant once established.

Native Range: Western States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, rock garden, butterfly garden, deer resistant garden