

Scarlet Gilia

Ipomopsis aggregata

Characteristics: Biennial with clusters of brilliant red or scarlet flowers and finely dissected leaves. Height to 3 feet. Blooms in summer.

Native Range: Western United States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, rock garden, butterfly garden, Attracts Hummingbirds, deer resistant

USDA Hardiness: Zone 4