

Tufted Evening Primrose

Oenothera caespitosa

Characteristics: Low growing fragrant perennial with large white flowers. Each flower opening in the afternoon and closing the next day with the heat of the day. Grows in full sun or light shade and well drained soil.

Native Range: Western United States.

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, rock garden, butterfly garden. Attracts Moths

USDA Hardiness: Zone 3