

Ninebark

Physocarpus malvaceus

Characteristics: Small to medium shrub (to 6 feet tall) producing clusters of white fragrant flowers in spring and bright foliage in the fall. Grows in full sun to part shade. Widespread in our area .

Native Range: Northwestern States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, wildlife garden