

Mexican Hat

Ratibida columnifera

Characteristics: Drought tolerant perennial features distinctive cone shaped yellow or red and yellow flowers. Blooms in summer. Height to 2 feet. Adapts to most soils, and will grow in low to moderately moist sites, but prefers good drainage.

Native Range: Plain States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, butterfly garden, deer resistant garden