

Purple Desert Sage

Salvia dorrii

Characteristics: Very drought tolerant small deciduous shrub (to 3 feet tall) that features spikes of pale-blue and purple flowers in late spring. This plant is a member of the mint family and also features silvery highly aromatic leaves. Grow in the soil that is well drained in a hot site with full sun.

Native Range: Western States

Landscape Uses: Rock Garden