

Oregon Checkerbloom

Sidalcea oregana

Characteristics: Another member of the mallow family featuring spikes of bright pink flowers in spring. Prefers full sun to part shade and regular moisture. Height to 24 inches.

Native Range: Western States

Landscape Uses: Perennial Garden