

Mountain Ash

Sorbus scopulina

Characteristics: Small tree or large shrub (to 15 feet tall). Producing clusters of fragrant white flowers in spring, orange berries and red foliage in the fall.

Prefers full sun and moderate

Native Range: Western States

Landscape Uses: Wildlife garden, Perennial garden