

American Cranberrybush

Viburnum trilobum

Characteristics: Medium to large deciduous shrub (to 12 feet tall) producing clusters of white flowers in spring and red fruits in the fall. Leaves 3 lobed, resembling maple leaves, turning red in fall. Prefer full sun to part shade, moderate to high moisture.

Native Range: Northwestern States

Landscape Uses: Shrub Border, flowering shrub, attracts birds and wildlife