

Purple Meadow Rue

Thalictrum dasycarpum

Characteristics: Features lacy, medium green, compound foliage and tiny, purplish-white flowers which appear in early summer. Individual flowers are not particularly striking, but mass effect of bloom can be quite showy. Stems are often purple. .Prefers full sun to part shade and moderately moist soil.

Native Range: Northern Rocky Mountain States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, Accent plant, Deer Resistant