

Thyme Buckwheat

Eriogonum thymoides

Characteristics: Thyme Buckwheat is a mat forming perennial native to the shrub-steppe region, which produces clusters of cream colored flowers. This relatively small member of the buckwheat family is best suited to a rock garden setting. Prefers full sun and good drainage.

Native Range: Western States

Landscape Uses: rock garden, butterfly garden, deer resistant garden