

Western Showy Aster

Eurybia conspicua

Characteristics: Perennial member of the sunflower family with lavender and yellow flowers. Prefers full sun, adaptable to both dry and moderately moist sites. Height to 3 feet. Excellent for attracting butterflies.

Native Range: Northwestern States

Landscape Uses: Perennial garden, butterfly garden.